PHYSICAL ACTIVITY GRANTS & FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

The Physical Activity Taskforce does not provide physical activity grant funds but has identified a number of physical activity related funds provided by non-government, local, State and federal agencies.

These funding opportunities have been collated into the following funding matrix and have been grouped into key areas as follows:

- Community participation;
- Sport;
- Community infrastructure and facilities;
- Regional grants;
- Health and wellbeing;
- Capacity building/professional development;
- Equipment/renovations; and,
- Research.

For further information or assistance, please email Laura Robinson, Project Officer, Physical Activity Taskforce Secretariat at Laura.Robinson@dsr.wa.gov.au

Please note: This document will be updated by the Physical Activity Taskforce Secretariat every three to six months.

| Community Participation Funding            | Department of Sport and Recreation               | This scheme funds initiatives that target low participation groups, particularly culturally and linguistically diverse (CaLD) and indigenous populations. Amounts from $1,000 to $5,000 are available. To be eligible for the funding, projects must increase participation in physical activity and/or enhance the development of sport and recreation personnel. Sport and recreation community organisations/clubs (who are not currently receiving Organisational Sustainability Program Funding); other community and not-for-profit organisations and non-metropolitan local governments are all eligible. | Grants open all year round.        | T: (08) 9492 9626
| Indigenous Sport and Recreation            | Department of Health and Ageing                  | The Indigenous Sport and Recreation Program (ISRP) is an Australian Government program that provides funding to community groups, organisations and the Australian Sports Commission to increase and encourage the active participation of Indigenous Australians in sport and physical recreation activities. The ISRP supports projects that:
- encourage wide community involvement and active participation in group sport and physical recreation activities;
- are designed to build the skills of community members to participate in, organise and promote community sport and physical recreation activities over the long term; and
- promote healthy living, drug free participation and respect for players, officials and spectators. | Applications for the 2011-12 funding year must reach an Indigenous Coordination Centre (ICC) or state office by close of business on 25 February 2011. | T: (02) 6289 1555

least one of the objectives of Seniors Week, which are:

- recognise and thank seniors for their contribution to the community;
- challenge negative stereotypes and present a positive image of ageing;
- promote the life-course approach to ageing well.

Events are strongly encouraged to target seniors who would not normally participate in Seniors Week activities; are at risk of becoming socially isolated; or are members of Indigenous or culturally and linguistically diverse communities.

The grants are open to all not-for-profit, religious and charitable organisations, public companies limited by guarantee and local government authorities based in Western Australia. To be eligible for funding not-for-profit organisations must be incorporated. Where the organisation is not incorporated the application must be supported by an incorporated not-for-profit organisation or a local government organisation.

| Coastwest Grants Program | Western Australian Planning Commission and the Australian Government’s Caring for Our Country | Western Australia’s coastal environments have unique and diverse values, and face a range of difficult challenges including the effects of climate change, population growth, competing uses and degradation. The annual Coastwest grants support projects designed as a response to these challenges, which improve the condition and amenity of these coastal environments. Grants are provided to community groups to work in partnership with coastal managers in on ground coastal and marine rehabilitation, restoration and preventative conservation projects. The grants also look to build the skills and capacity of Western Australian communities and to encourage and maintain their involvement in coastal and natural resource management. | Coastwest is open for grant applications from 4 July 2011 and will close at 5pm, Thursday 29 September 2011. Successful applications will be announced at the end of 2011. | E: coastwest@planning.wa.gov.au
| Big Ideas | Lotterywest | Some ideas are particularly out of the ordinary. They might provide enjoyment for large numbers of people, help to bring about important change, or create a major community asset. The number of grants Lotterywest provides for big ideas tends to be small, though the range varies enormously. Regardless of their diversity, grants typically: | Applications can be made at any time. | T: (08) 9340 5270

- Have strong community support;
- Offer widespread community involvement;
- Provide significant, enduring impact;
- Are unique, often world-class;
- Attract major support from a number of sources (whether financial or in-kind); and
- Involve partnership between government, community and private sector.

As grants for big ideas can be complex, Lotterywest needs to be involved from the outset.

Grants for big ideas typically fall into one of the following three areas:

1. Community assets
2. Major events
3. Large scale projects

These grants are available to not-for-profit organisations and local government authorities.

| Community Events | Lotterywest | All communities enjoy celebrating and sharing who they are and what they value with others. These grants provide for community gatherings, awareness days, fairs, festivals and other occasions. These grants are available to not-for-profit organisations and local government authorities. Grants are limited to $20,000 per organisation, for each financial year. Communities’ mirrors the aims of Know Your Neighbour Day by seeking to:
- strengthen communities and build better relationships with the people who live around us;
- create safer, healthier and more vibrant suburbs and towns;
- promote tolerance, respect and understanding;
- break down community barriers; and
- protect the elderly, the vulnerable and the disadvantaged.

This year, the Department for Communities is encouraging Know Your Neighbour Day activities that raise awareness of social isolation and support the inclusion of older, socially isolated individuals; promote an inclusive community; and enhance links with, and between, non-government organisations operating at the local level.

| Thank a Volunteer Day Grants | Department for Communities | Funding of up to $1,000 is available for community organisations to host Thank A Volunteer Day Events. Organisations may apply for this grant in order to host an event to thank and recognise volunteers for their contribution within the community. The Western Australian State Government, through the Department of Sport and Recreation and Lotterywest, provides significant financial assistance to sport in Western Australia through the Sports Lotteries Account.

The Department of Sport and Recreation’s mission is to enhance the quality of life of Western Australians through their participation and achievement in sport and recreation. To achieve this through the Sports Lotteries Account, their objective in providing financial assistance is to:

- Promote individual health, fitness and well being and develop community pride and spirit through sport;
- Maximise the number of participants in sport at all levels;
- Improve the overall quality of sport performance and delivery to participants;
- Have better managed organisations; and
- Encourage risk management assessments and controls to provide a safer sporting environment.

The primary purpose for Healthway’s Sport and Racing Sponsorship Program is to provide sponsorship support for community organisations for programs and events within the sport, racing and active recreation areas where there is a significant opportunity to change behaviours and environments to improve health. The objectives of the Sport and Racing Sponsorship program are to:

- To encourage healthy lifestyles through the effective promotion of health messages relating to Healthway priority areas;
- To facilitate structural and policy change within organisations and venues to create healthy environments;
- To facilitate opportunities for priority population groups to participate in healthy activities, with either physical activity and/or social engagement benefits; and
- To reduce the promotion of unhealthy messages or brands which undermine Healthway objectives.
Sport and Racing Sponsorship under $5,000:
Incorporated organisations can apply for:

Message Promotion Sponsorship: Sponsorship is provided in return for naming rights and the active promotion of a health message in conjunction with a sport or racing project/event that reaches one or more of Healthway's priority population groups.

OR

Healthy Participation Sponsorship: Sponsorship is provided to project(s)/events(s) that offer opportunities for active participation (with a preference for Healthway priority population groups) or deliver a new initiative that will expand participation numbers.

Sport and Racing Sponsorship $5,000 - $50,000:
Incorporated organisations can apply for:

Message Promotion Sponsorship: Sponsorship is offered in return for either naming rights, principal or major sponsorship rights in conjunction with a sport or racing project/event that reaches one or more of Healthway's priority population groups.

OR

Healthy Participation Sponsorship: Sponsorship is offered to project(s)/events(s) that provide increased opportunities for active participation, with a preference for participation of Healthway priority population groups.

OR

Structural Reform Sponsorship: Sponsorship is offered to facilitate substantial structural reform and create healthy environments. Examples may include: the introduction of a traffic light food classification system with minimum levels of healthy (green) foods or the introduction of responsible alcohol policies above and beyond licensing requirements.

All applications requesting sponsorship over $5,000 are due no less than 4 months prior to the commencement of the sponsored event or activity.

NOTE: All applications for sponsorship over $5,000 for an annual program of events or activities must be aligned to a calendar year or financial year (i.e. July to June). Specific closing dates apply to applications of this nature and are available from the Healthway website.

- Provide significant, enduring impact;
- Are unique, often world-class;
- Attract major support from a number of sources (whether financial or in-kind); and
- Involve partnership between government, community and the private sector.

As grants for big ideas can be complex, Lotterywest needs to be involved from the outset.

Grants for big ideas typically fall into one of the following three areas:

4. Community assets
5. Major events
6. Large scale projects

These grants are available to not-for-profit organisations and local government authorities.

Applications can be made at any time.

| Regional and Rural Research and Development Grants Program | Department of Regional Australia | The Regional and Rural Research and Development Grants (RRRDG) program is an Australian Government initiative to fund research into issues affecting Australia's regions, and to help communicate this research to national and regional decision makers. The Department of Regional Australia, Regional Development and Local Government will assess projects for funding under the RRRDG in accordance with the guidelines, and make appropriate recommendations to the Minister for decision. | The 2011-12 RRRDG funding round has not yet opened. Further details will be made available once the 2011-12 RRRDG Guidelines have been released. | If you would like more information about RRRDG, please email your request to: steven.hall@regional.gov.au. |
| Regional Grants Scheme | Department of Regional Development and Lands | The Regional Grants Scheme is an initiative of Royalties for Regions that aims to improve economic and community infrastructure and services in regional Western Australia. The contestable grants program allows each of the nine development commissions to make up to $1 million available for applicants within their region. This fund provides new opportunities for local communities to improve and develop infrastructure and services in regional Western Australia. The scheme is especially aimed at projects that will help investment and increase job opportunities or help to improve the quality of life in the regions. Funding will be provided to assist infrastructure, services and community projects, including the provision of headworks, and to help in the development of regional communities so they prosper as vibrant and interesting places in which to live. The State’s nine Regional Development Commissions will administer the scheme locally, based on the following broad objectives: - Increase capacity for local strategic planning and decision-making; - Retain and build the benefits of regional communities; - Promote relevant and accessible local services; - Assist communities to plan for a sustainable economic and social future; - Enable communities to expand social and economic opportunities; and - Assist regional communities to prosper through increased employment opportunities, business and industry development opportunities and improved local services. Local governments, voluntary organisations, business groups, educational institutions, philanthropic foundations and community groups are eligible. State and Federal government agencies (may apply but projects deemed to be within their core business functions will not be supported). | Applications close on Thursday 10 March 2011. | Please contact the Regional Development Commission in the area in which the grant funding is proposed to be used. The grant money cannot be used for equipment (including books), accommodation, uniforms, salaries, competition entry, venue hire, catering, sports trainer or first aid training, retrospective course costs or administration costs. | Applications open in early March 2011. Applications will be assessed throughout May 2011. Applicants will be advised of the success or otherwise of their applications by July 2011. | T: (02) 6214 1111 W: http://www.ausport.gov.au/supporting/funding/grants_and_scholarships |
| National Coaching Scholarship Program | Australian Sports Commission | This program’s main objective is to provide opportunities for potential and current elite coaches to develop skills and knowledge to coach effectively in high performance programs. The scholarship program is administered by the ASC's Sports Coach and Official Section in partnership with the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS) and national sporting organisations. The scholarships provide potential high performance coaches with a structured, intensive learning program over a two year period. Scholarship coaches are generally placed within an AIS, or state institute/academy of sport program. The head coaches of these programs act as a mentor to the scholarship coach and assist them to develop a comprehensive understanding of elite athletes and the programs in which they train and compete. To complement the practical learning, scholarship coaches undertake an educational component which may include postgraduate coaching qualifications or other appropriate courses. If you would like to apply for a scholarship please contact your national sporting organisation. | | T: (02) 6214 1111 W: http://www.ausport.gov.au/supporting/funding/grants_and_scholarships |
The National Officiating Scholarship Program aims to assist the development of emerging high performance officials by enabling them to undertake professional development and identified training activities to improve their skills and to fast track them through a recognised pathway to officiate within the elite level of their chosen sport.

The individualised scholarships will provide support in a variety of areas such as high level practical officiating experience, accreditation advancement, sports psychology services, sports recovery support services and further development opportunities.

Each scholarship official works with a mentor who assists them for the duration of their scholarship. Mentoring is a key component of the program. The ASC conducts an induction workshop for scholarship officials and their mentors, and provides ongoing support and monitoring throughout the program.

Scholarships are generally conducted over a calendar year and funds are paid through National Sporting Organisations (NSO) to administer the program.

<td>Organisational Sustainability Program</td>
<td>Department of Sport and Recreation</td>
<td>The Organisational Sustainability Program (OSP) was developed to refine the way in which the department works with key organisations in the WA sport and recreation industry to enable them to meet the challenges they face. It is about assisting organisations to make the most efficient use of their resources to enable them to be adaptable, meet the expectations of their members and be valued by the West Australian community. DSR aims to do this by working with organisations to enable the best practice governance, management and human resource structures and processes required to create a high performance organisation. The Department will invest in the strategic intent and operational plans of the organisation rather than providing funding for specific programs. As such, organisations will be given three-year funding agreements to encourage longer term planning.</td>

<td>These grants are provided for the construction or purchase of a building, extensions, renovations, and the fit out of your work space. These grants may also support short term leasing costs, if this is the best way to ensure stability for staff and the users of your service. Good planning is essential to making sure that you have the right work place to meet your current and future requirements. If you need help with this, Lotterywest can also provide grants to assist with getting advice and planning your project. For further details please refer to our grants for organisational development. These grants are available to not-for-profit organisations and local government authorities.</td>
<td>Applications can be made at any time. Grants for work places are often complex, Lotterywest needs to be involved from the outset.</td>

| Information Technology and Web | Lotterywest | Lotterywest supports the purchase of information technology to meet your organisation’s needs. For example, grants can be for hardware and software networks, custom-designed software, database development, standard office applications or simply to upgrade a computer. This grant can also cover the cost of creating a website, and developing your skills in website design and management.

Requests over $25,000 must be accompanied by a technology needs assessment undertaken by an IT consultant (independent to the seller and external to your organisation, where possible).

Generally, Lotterywest does not cover the cost of ongoing technical support for an information technology system or consumable items.

| Research| Lotterywest | Lotterywest supports community organisations to investigate, compare, evaluate and undertake action research.

This grant supports research projects that:
- Address WA social, cultural, economic, geographic, health and environmental issues;
- Add meaningfully to knowledge in a particular area;
- Inform policy;
- Result in learning that can be transferred; and,
- Bring researchers, practitioners, policy makers and consumers together.

Grants can cover professional fees, salaries, administration, specialised equipment and minor capital works.

To ensure maximum benefit, Lotterywest requires the findings of the research to be broadly distributed and freely available to all interested groups.

Lotterywest supports organisations to undertake significant medical research. Grants may be provided for equipment and facilities that are not already available in Western Australia, and can be shared by the wider medical research community.

Lotterywest can also support various projects e.g. feasibility studies and public forums where research groups and other stakeholders work together to advance medical research in Western Australia.

This grant does not provide research that forms part of academic qualifications and does not provide for clinical trials.

Please contact Lotterywest to discuss your project before completing an application form.

The health promotion research program provides grants for research leading to the promotion of good health and the prevention of illness in the community. Healthway encourages innovative research projects and collaborative studies that foster the sharing of skills and expertise.

Research grants are generally awarded to researchers based in WA universities, and Healthway places a strong emphasis on supporting research with strong links to policy and practice. Applications are assessed on their potential to generate outcomes that will be translated into benefits for the WA community, as well as their alignment to Healthway’s health promotion priorities.

While research grant applications can be accepted in any area relevant to health promotion, proposals that address Healthway’s highest priority areas of alcohol, tobacco smoking control, good nutrition, physical activity, mental health promotion and indigenous health are particularly encouraged.
